

K-Love provides an active service to the residents in Raleigh's listening area. I am asking that they be allowed to continue to provide the spiritual guidance that we all need so much. I personally don't know what I would have done without them in my time of crisis. Their's is the music that counts.